7.2 Intellectual Property and Ownership

PressReader Products and Services contain copyrighted material, trademarks and other proprietary information. Without limiting the scope of PressReader's intellectual property rights, the Client acknowledges that PressReader and/or its licensors own intellectual property rights in (i) the content included within the Publications; (ii) the PressReader Products and Services, the content contained within them; (iii) the selection, coordination, and arrangement of the PressReader Products and Services websites, software and mobile applications and the Publications contained within them; and (iv) the trademarks used in connection with the PressReader Products and Services. Publications available with the PressReader Products and Services are the subject of licensing agreements between PressReader and Third Parties, including the original publishers, and may not be modified, reverse engineered, redistributed, sold, publicly displayed, licensed, rented, or otherwise provided to a Third Party outside of the scope of that licensing agreement, nor may the Publications be commercially exploited by the Client. PressReader does not grant the Client any licences, either express or implied, to the intellectual property of PressReader or PressReader's publishing partners, except as expressly authorised in this Agreement.

7.3 Third Party Content

PressReader is a distributor (and not a publisher) of content supplied by Third Parties and has no editorial control over the content. Any opinions, advice, statements, services, offers, or other information or content expressed or made available by Third Parties, including those made in Publications offered in the PressReader Products and Services, are those of the respective author(s) or publisher(s) and not of PressReader. Neither PressReader nor any Third Party provider of information guarantees the accuracy, timely availability, completeness, or usefulness of any content. Under no circumstance will PressReader be liable for any loss or damage caused by the Client or any Third Party's reliance on information obtained through the PressReader Products and Services. The PressReader Products and Services may contain links to other Internet sites and Third Party resources. PressReader is not responsible for either the availability of these outside resources or their content.

7.4 Trademark Licence

- (a) The Parties grant to each other a non-exclusive, non-sub-licensable, royalty-free licence to use their respective names, the names of a Party's products or services and their associated logos ("Marks") subject to the reasonable instructions of the granting Party in its use of the Marks and solely for the purposes of this Agreement, on the following terms:
 - (i) The Client acknowledges that PressReader may require such licence of Client's Trade Marks in order to provide the PressReader Products and Services to the Client and its Users;
 - (ii) Each Party shall not use any name or trademark confusingly similar to the Mark;
 - (iii) The Client shall not use the PressReader Marks in connection with any services or products other than the PressReader Products and Services;
 - (iv) Each Party acknowledges that, save as set out in this Agreement, its use of the granting Party's Marks under this Agreement will not directly or indirectly create for it any right, title or interest therein; and
 - (v) Neither Party shall undertake any action that interferes with or diminishes the granting Party's right, title or interest in the granting Party's Marks.
- (b) Following any reasonable request by the granting Party, the other Party shall promptly provide a copy to the granting Party of any written communication and a transcript of any oral communication in which the granting party's Mark is used.
- (c) The granting Party may inform the other party of any deficiency or irregularity in the materials provided insofar as that deficiency or irregularity could reasonably otherwise be detrimental to the reputation of the granting Party. Without prejudice to the granting Party's rights or remedies, the other Party shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, correct any such deficiency or irregularity.

8. GENERAL

8.1 Monitoring

PressReader has the right, but not the obligation, to monitor the PressReader Products and Services (i) to determine compliance with this Agreement and any operating rules established by PressReader; and (ii) to satisfy any law, regulation or authorised government request. Without limiting the foregoing, PressReader shall have the right to remove any content that PressReader, in our sole discretion, find to be in violation of the provisions hereof or otherwise objectionable or in breach of PressReader licensors' obligations.

8.2 Data Protection

Each Party acknowledges that, if they receive any personal data from the other Party, they will be a data controller (where "personal data" and "data controller" are terms defined under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679), and agrees that they will treat such personal data in compliance with the applicable data protection legislation, regulations and codes of conduct.

8.3 Notice

Any demand, notice, or other communication to be given in connection with this Agreement must be given in writing and will be given by personal delivery or registered post addressed to the recipient or to such other address or individual as may be designated by notice given by either Party to the other. Any demand, notice, or other communication given by personal delivery will be conclusively deemed to have been given on the day of actual delivery thereof and if given by registered post, it shall be deemed delivered upon confirmation of such delivery to the designated party supplied by the entity making such delivery.

8.4 Force Majeure

Neither the Client nor PressReader shall be considered in default or liable under this Agreement in cases of delays due to Force Majeure. This Agreement may be terminated forthwith by written notice to the other Party upon the occurrence of Force Majeure, if an event of Force Majeure exists for a period of 14 (fourteen) days or more.

8.5 Compliance with Law

- (a) Each Party shall, in the performance of this Agreement, fully comply with, and abide by, all laws, regulations, regulatory rulings or directives, codes of practice, court orders, and decisions of administrative tribunals of competent jurisdiction, that may, in any manner or extent, concern, govern, or affect either Party's respective performance of, and obligations under, this Agreement.
- (b) Each Party shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption and maintain its own policies and procedures in this respect. Each Party shall promptly report to the other Party any offer, request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by that Party in connection with the performance of this Agreement.

8.6 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Ireland and shall be treated, in all respects, as an Irish contract. The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Irish courts in respect of the subject matter hereof.

8.7 Variation

No variation of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by and on behalf of each of the Parties.

8.8 Interpretation

In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) words in the singular include the plural and vice versa and words in one gender include any other gender;
- (b) headings are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

8.9 Entire Agreement

This Agreement, and any operating rules for the PressReader Products and Services, set out the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all representations, communications and prior agreements (written or oral). Each Party acknowledges that upon entering into this Agreement, it does not rely, and has not relied, upon any representation (whether negligent or innocent), statement or warranty made or agreed to by any person (whether a party to this Agreement or not) except those expressly set out in this Agreement. This clause shall not apply to any statement, representation, or warranty made fraudulently, or to any provision of this Agreement which was induced by fraud for which the remedies available shall be those available under the laws of Ireland.

8.10 Severability

To the extent that any provision of this Agreement is found by any court or competent authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement, it shall not affect the enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement nor shall it affect the validity, lawfulness or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.11 No Waiver

No single or partial exercise, or failure or delay in exercising any right, power or remedy by any Party shall constitute a waiver by that Party of, or impair or preclude any further exercise of, that or any right, power or remedy arising under this Agreement or otherwise.

8.12 Assignment

The Client may not sell, assign, or transfer their rights or delegate their duties under this Agreement in whole or in part without the prior written consent of PressReader, and any attempted assignment or delegation without PressReader's consent will be void. PressReader may assign this Agreement to a PressReader-affiliated company, without notice to the Client.

8.13 English Language

The Parties hereby expressly declare that they have required that this Agreement and all annexes, documents or notes relating to it will be drawn up in English. Les parties aux présentes déclarent expressément qu'elles ont exigé que la présente convention et tous les annexes, document ou avis qui y sont afférents soient rédigés en langue anglaise.
